REPORT OF DIRECTOR AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Barnwell County Career Center (BCCC) is one of eleven multi-district career centers in South Carolina. BCCC serves students from Barnwell School Districts 19, 29, and 45. Also, 6 students attend from the local private school. 2 home-school students also attended. BCCC had an enrollment of 467 participating in 12 career programs in 2013-2014. 71 students were involved in School-to-Work activities. Activities included cooperative learning at 18 different sites, shadowing local businesses and participating in clinicals at various medical sites in the local area. BCCC also continues to provide School Based Enterprise opportunities for the school year. 25 students participated in the School Based Enterprise. Shadowing opportunities were made available to middle school students from our feeder schools. 58 students were induced into the National Technical Honor Society. Students were involved in a variety of organizations, such as SkillsUSA, HOSA, DECA, FFA, and FCCLA. Memberships in these organizations allows students to participate in regional, state, and national competitions in their program of study. 7 students participated in the SkillsUSA competition in Greenville, SC and Anderson, SC, where 2 students earned Second Place in their respective contests, Architectural Design and Residential Wiring. All other students competed well and finished anywhere from Third Place to Twelfth Place. 18 students attended the State HOSA convention in Charleston where two students won bronze medals in the Forensic Medicine competition. 2 students from the Automotive Technology program competed in the Ford AAA Auto Skills Competition. 104 students earned national/industry certification during the 2013-2014 school year. The FFA chapter at BCCC continues to be involved in many community activities. The chapter sponsored a Rodeo event in the spring in Barnwell, SC. Students attended numerous FFA events. Grants and awards amounting to $5200 were won by students of the FFA program. Students attended the Sunbelt Agriculture Expo in Tifton, GA in the spring. BCCC had a total of 98 students from the three district high schools who completed training at the center. Of the 2014 Career and Technology completers eligible for placement, 95.9% were placed in secondary programs, the military, or gainful employment.
